

Women as Career Coaches

Wednesday, March 29, 2006 – 6:00–9:00 p.m.
Burlington Convention Centre

Young women need access to adult role models who are willing to share their pathways and encourage the goals and dreams of our youth. To meet this need, the Halton Education Council, in partnership with the Ontario Women's Directorate, is very excited to once again host Women as Career Coaches on Wednesday, March 29, 2006, from 6:00-9:00 p.m. at the Burlington Convention Centre. The Right Honourable Sandra Pupatello, Minister of Community and Social Services, will bring greetings from the province of Ontario. Last year this event was extremely well received with over 300 women in attendance. The event is designed to unite women from different occupations with young women, to share their journeys, experiences and insights.

Halton Regional Chairman Joyce Savoline, Honorary Chair, Women as Career Coaches, encourages all women to attend this inspiring evening. It will make a difference in your life!

Register now for this free evening, as space is limited.

For more information or to register as a student participant or career coach, please contact the Halton Industry Education Council at 905-634-2575 or wacc@hiec.on.ca

Women as Career Coaches

Wednesday, March 29, 2006 – 6:00–9:00 p.m.
Burlington Convention Centre

Young women need access to adult role models who are willing to share their pathways and encourage the goals and dreams of our youth. To meet this need, the Halton Education Council, in partnership with the Ontario Women's Directorate, is very excited to once again host Women as Career Coaches on Wednesday, March 29, 2006, from 6:00-9:00 p.m. at the Burlington Convention Centre. The Right Honourable Sandra Pupatello, Minister of Community and Social Services, will bring greetings from the province of Ontario. Last year this event was extremely well received with over 300 women in attendance. The event is designed to unite women from different occupations with young women, to share their journeys, experiences and insights.

Halton Regional Chairman Joyce Savoline, Honorary Chair, Women as Career Coaches, encourages all women to attend this inspiring evening. It will make a difference in your life!

Register now for this free evening, as space is limited.

For more information or to register as a student participant or career coach, please contact the Halton Industry Education Council at 905-634-2575 or wacc@hiec.on.ca

